To whom it may concern

We have worked with Tina from Coaching Dynamics for over two years, where she has been delivering internal courses for our staff.

Over the past few years, Simarco has had tremendous growth both organically and through acquisition and we identified that we needed to invest in our staff and their development.

Tina has delivered an internal Customer Service course along with a year long Management programme for our Managers who are located across the UK.

I have always found Tina to be very informative and she strikes the balance between being confidential and providing you with feedback that can be used to improve the overall business performance.

We have been impressed with the quality of the content and Tina always goes above and beyond outside of the agreed hours when requested, she has become an extension of Simarco.

I personally would recommend Tina to any business that is looking to drive culture change by empowering the next generation of Leaders and we will be engaging further with Tina to continue this successful programme.

Yours faithfully

Trevor Scott
